H. Any expenses, charges, goods, inventory, equipment, or other personal property provided to Customer by Stallion from or involving third parties shall be supplied to Customer at Stallion's cost plus an administration fee, unless otherwise agreed to in writing.

Customer and Stallion shall promptly attempt to resolve any dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Customer shall pay the portion of any invoice that is not disputed in good faith.

J. If Customer has a credit balance with Stallion, then Stallion shall be entitled to set off such credit against other amounts owed by Customer by providing Customer with written notice describing (i) the basis for such credit balance in reasonable detail, and (ii) how the credit will be applied. The terms of this section apply to and include Customer's and Stallion's respective affiliates.

K. Anchor pricing based on standard surface conditions. Additional charges may apply with respect to other surfaces or concealed conditions. Anchors are not intended to, and do not, prevent weather-related damages. 2. Delivery/Disclaimer. Stallion will use its commercially reasonable efforts to have Equipment ready for shipment by the agreed date, subject to receipt by Stallion of all necessary Customer information. STALLION ASSUMES NO LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES INCURRED AS A RESULT OF ITS LATE DELIVERY OF EQUIPMENT, REGARDLESS OF CAUSE. Unless otherwise agreed in the Order Document, delivery of Equipment will occur upon delivery of such Equipment to Customer's location or pick up by Customer or its agents ("Delivery"). Customer shall inspect all Equipment upon Delivery and confirm that it is in good working order and repair, and suitable for Customer's needs. If Customer fails to inspect the Equipment immediately upon Delivery, Customer shall be deemed to have accepted the Equipment as delivered.

3. Risk of Loss. Risk of loss of Equipment will pass to Customer upon Delivery of Equipment. Risk of loss of Equipment sold to Customer will pass to Customer upon shipment of Equipment ("FOB Shipping Point"). If Stallion has not received shipping instructions at the time of delivery or if Customer requests that Stallion store the Equipment until further instruction or if Customer does not inform Stallion of shipping instructions for other reasons, Stallion shall act as a bailee of such Equipment and may charge Customer its customary storage rates. During any such bailment, Customer will maintain all-risk property insurance on Equipment, at its replacement value, and Stallion will not be liable for deterioration or loss of Equipment resulting from atmospheric conditions, acts of God, or other events not within Stallion's reasonable control.

4. Rental Terms.

A. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in these General Terms, upon Delivery of Equipment and continuing until such time as the Equipment is returned to the designated Stallion location or picked up by Stallion at Customer's location (as applicable, herein called "Return"), such Equipment shall be deemed to be in the care, custody, or control of Customer. Risk of loss of or damage to such Equipment shall pass to Customer upon its Delivery and shall remain with Customer until its Return. During this period, Customer shall assume all obligations and liability concerning the Equipment, and for its safe use, maintenance, operation, condition, and storage, including without limitation, liability for the loss, theft, destruction, or damage to the Equipment (or any part thereof) and for all other risks and liabilities arising from the use, operation, condition,

Customer shall pay Stallion the replacement value of new equipment of like quality for any Equipment that is lost, stolen, destroyed or damaged. Upon Return, if Stallion determines the Equipment is damaged beyond ordinary wear and tear, then Customer shall be responsible for all costs for service work, inspections and parts required to bring the Equipment to good working condition. Until Return, Customer assumes all responsibility for maintaining the Equipment in good repair and working order, unless otherwise agreed in writing or specified in the Order Document.

B. Customer will keep all Equipment free from liens and encumbrances arising in connection with Customer's operations and/or use of the Equipment.

C. Customer, at its sole cost, shall provide and maintain insurance against the loss, theft, damage, or destruction of the Equipment used in connection with a Rental in an amount not less than the replacement value. In the event that Stallion elects, in its sole discretion, to make its Rental Equipment Protection Addendum available to Customer for all or a portion of the Equipment, this requirement may be waived prior to delivery of the Equipment in exchange for a fee of no less than ten percent (10%) of the monthly charge associated with such Equipment. This Rental Equipment Protection Addendum is not insurance and does not protect Customer from liability to third-parties or Stallion, and does not cover intentional acts, improper use, or failure to perform regular and routine maintenance and cleaning by Customer. In the event Customer does not timely provide Stallion with acceptable evidence of such insurance, then Customer will be deemed to have acknowledged and accepted that Stallion may assess a fee based on the monthly charge associated with such Equipment pursuant to the Rental Equipment Protection Addendum.

D. The Rental term shall be for the duration specified in the Order Document ("Rental Term"). If no term is specified in the Order Document, or if Customer fails to Return prior to the expiration of the Rental Term, then the Rental Term shall be/month to month. Upon the expiration of the Rental Term, Customer will at its sole cost Return or coordinate the Return of the Equipment.

E. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Customer shall not itself nor permit others to touch, alter, move, or in any way tamper with the Equipment or any of the ancillary wiring, fencing, or signage placed by Stallion. Stallion shall have the right at any time and without prior notice to enter upon the job site to inspect, observe, maintain, repair or remove the Equipment.

F. Customer will ensure that Stallion has access to the job site and must remove all obstructions and personal property from the designated areas where Stallion will set up its Equipment. Customer shall provide access and ingress to, and egress from work areas, and permits Stallion to use and to place signs in and around the job site. Further, unless otherwise agreed in writing, Customer permits Stallion to take photos or videos of the job site and to use such in Stallion's customer service, advertising and marketing free of royalty or copyright.

G. 5. GPS Tracking. Customer and Stallion each consent to the collection and monitoring of electronic information, including Global Positioning System ("GPS") data, generated by or in connection with Customer's use of or the location of the Equipment (including through or utilizing telematics devices). Customer agrees that Stallion owns the data described in this paragraph and may use such data, including GPS data, in accordance with Stallion's Privacy Policy. Customer shall obtain all required consents as may be required under any applicable laws from its employees, contractors or other Qualified Operators to permit Stallion's collection and use of data under this section.
